

ROTHSAY PUBLIC SCHOOL – DISTANCE LEARNING PLAN

JUNE 11, 2021 UPDATE

*If Rothsay school goes to a distance learning plan, following are the plans:

COMMUNICATION WITH FAMILIES

- Parents and students will be notified of a change to distance learning by JMC notification, email, and schoolinfoapp.
- Major communication will be done by the same means.
- The documents associated with distance learning will be posted on our website.
- Provide parents with Summit contact information for mental health needs.

NUTRITION

- Parents will be notified if meals are able to be delivered.

INTERNET AND DEVICE ACCESS

- All students grades 3-12 have a chromebook.
- Loffler will continue to provide support for those computers.

TRANSPORTATION

- There will be no transportation during distance learning.

MENTAL HEALTH AND WELL-BEING

- Parents will contact the school counselor or Summit if your child is experiencing mental health problems.
- Teachers will refer those who appear to have trouble to the counselor.

STUDENTS RECEIVING SPECIAL EDUCATION SERVICES

- Rothsay school will continue to follow the IEP.

ATTENDANCE AND MEMBERSHIP

- Attendance will continue to be kept.

GRADING

- Grading will continue to be the traditional A-F

PLAN FOR HYBRID LEARNING CONTINUED ON THE NEXT PAGE...

MASTER SCHEDULE

- High School students will follow their regular schedule – room assignments may change to accommodate social distancing.

IN THE EVENT OF A COVID-19 CASE/EXPOSURE

- Wilkin County Public Health will be immediately consulted on the plan of action
